PHOTO OF THE MONTH

Our Creative Writing and Contemplative Ecology students completed the Famine walk along the coast of Killary Fjord on a gorgeous sunny day.

RECENT EVENTS

4th of July Party

Our Summer Science, Creative Writing, and Contemplative Ecology students celebrated the 4th of July with a Barbecue at An Púcán in Galway!

Mac Dara's Island Pilgrimage

On July 16th, our Contemplative Ecology students received the special opportunity to go on a pilgrimage to Mac Dara's Island for his Feast Day. It was a beautiful, sunny day, on which students traveled to the island by boat, attended mass on the island, and returned to the Mac Dara's Day Festival in Carna.

STUDENT FOCUS

Kylemore Summer Interns

This summer, Notre Dame Kylemore is hosting two summer interns to help with programming and operations. Read about Sile and Jada below!

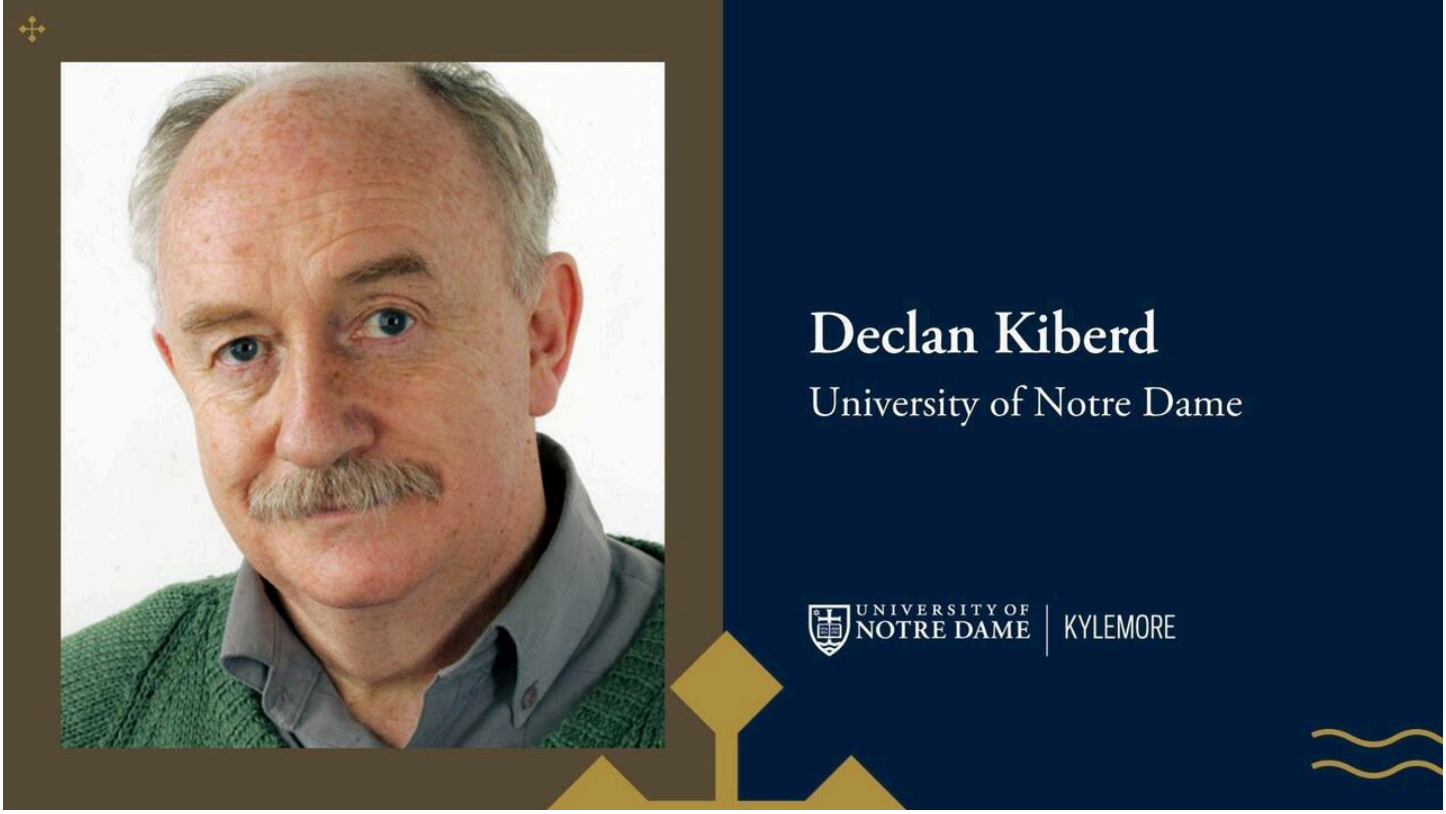

Sile Smith is a rising Sophomore in Ryan Hall, studying Finance and Applied Math with a minor in AI Analytics in Business. On campus, she is involved in Irish Dance, Student International Business Council, and poker. After graduation, she is hoping to go into the Space Force as an acquisitions officer. Currently, at Kylemore, she is the operations intern and has loved every part of her experience. Some of her favourite memories are bike trips with the students and late movie nights.

Jada Bautista is a rising Senior in the Glynn Family Honors Program studying Visual Communication Design and Psychology, with a minor in Artificial Intelligence. At Notre Dame, Jada is the creative director of the annual Filipino cultural show, a product designer for student startups, and researches phenomenology, embodiment, and aesthetics as a fellow with the Institute for Ethics and the Common Good. This summer, she is interning for Kylemore's Threshold Arts Festival. She enjoys the area's many picturesque spots for reading, journaling, contemplating, and connecting!

Declan Kiberd is the Donald and Marilyn Keough Professor of Irish Studies and Professor of English and Irish Language and Literature Emeritus at the University of Notre Dame. A Dublin native who counts the novelist John McGahern among his earliest schoolteachers, Professor Kiberd studied at Trinity College Dublin before earning a doctoral degree at the University of Oxford, under the direction of Richard Ellmann, the biographer of James Joyce, William Butler Yeats, and Oscar Wilde. Before coming to Notre Dame in 2011, he taught at the University of Kent, Trinity College, and University College Dublin.

Join us for Professor Kiberd's lecture "Jokes and their Relation to Yeat's Unconscious" on Friday 31st July at 3:00 PM, as part of the Threshold Festival.

The residencies are awarded to visual artists who have completed art college and are ideal for those looking to carve out time to dedicate to their work in a quiet, remote, peaceful setting.

Grow and develop as a leader, with greater capacity, effectiveness, and impact.

Paula Young

Chief Medical Officer, Richmond Community Hospital, Bon Secours Health System

"Inspirational Leadership at Kylemore is a think tank for like-minded leaders for whom values are important and who recognize there are many varied ways to lead, adapting to different cultures, and welcoming different ethnicities. These leaders gather in one location with similar drives to be effective and to increase their capacity for visionary leadership. It is not an experience we can have that often. We all learned from each other, and we gained a network of colleagues from Europe, Africa, and the United States. It changed the direction of my career. It truly lived up to its name, inspirational."
